Online Trading Institute provide courses and classes in Intraday Stock Trading, Futures Trading, Forex Trading, Commodities Trading, Currency Trading for Traders in Houston, New York City, Los Angeles, Chicago, Philadelphia, San Diego, Dallas, Phoenix at Texas, New York, California, Illinois in USA. Online Trading Institute was started by TRADERS FOR TRADERS. The founders had only one goal in mind: to equip investors and day traders with new trading strategies and day trading skills used by hedge fund and investment bank traders. The founders have worked for energy trading and stock trading companies and hedge funds and know how Smart Money vs. Scared Money trades. Our traders apply the day trading and short-term trading strategies they teach traders during class. Most of the time, the classes are held during market hours.

Power Trading

We are a trading corporation formed by a group of highly experienced traders who have worked at companies like Merrill Lynch, Barclay and a Houston based energy trading fund. We are extremely profitable traders and people who choose to work with us also do extremely well. We have plenty of strategies that work and are applied everyday for our own trading.

You will be given access to company capital and you will be able to execute your own ideas. You will have freedom to do your own research and execute your own trading ideas.

Requirements:

1. Have a strong ability to follow rules
2. Be a quick learner (you should absorb the strategies and sort through data fast)
3. Be a good communicator (we succeed because our traders communicate ideas)
4. Have patience

Compensation:

1. Traders are given access to capital depending on understanding level (determined by manager)
2. Traders who possess the above requirements are able to make more than $125k their first year.

You will learn our strategies and apply them to your own trading. To get you started, our traders will sit with you during market hours and guide you as you make profitable trades. Basically before you make a trade, our traders will tell you whether it's a right move or not. This is why our traders succeed. You always have access to our experience. You can spend hours upon hours with us during the marker hours making real trades.
